Pet: Black labrador, Raja

Raja was my grandfather's dog. I used to stay in Hashimara then, visiting our Kharagpur home only during vacations. But Raja knew that I was not a guest. He treated me like family, warming to me with time. As our bond grew, he would hide my shoes when it would be time for us to leave for Hashimara.

I shifted to Kharagpur two years ago. That's when our friendship became stronger. I take Raja out for a walk every evening. Whenever I am free I serve him dinner. We lost gran last year. It was a shock for both Raja and me.

He still gets emotional at the sight of gran's pictures. I understand his pain and try to give him company whenever I can, but it is Raja who never leaves my side when I'm at home.

📖 AIMS & AMBITIONS – “Nothing pushes students to do their best work like a teacher who takes pride not in his or her own accomplishments, but in helping others realise their potential.”

Every aspect of my teaching is shaped by the role that I play in the mentorship and development of my students. A good education can change anyone, but a good teacher can change everything in one’s life. My aim is to provide a rich, stimulating and caring environment in which the child feels happy, safe, secure and confident.

Lastly, I like to help all children and encourage them to reach their full potential by fostering self-esteem and a sense of achievement in them.

📖 HOBBIES - I enjoy walking among the trees and grasses and foliage. Walking through an untidy forest or grassland on its rough paths is like an adventure story being unravelled before me.

I love to read. Reading is my hobby. I read books belonging to all genres. But it is adventure and mystery stories that keep me engaged the most.
